

Mr. Kaufman of Lexington moved to amend them by adding at the end of the proposed sections 28A and 49A, in each instance, the following paragraph:

“Notwithstanding any special or general law to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall not take effect until such time as the executive office of administration and finance and the department of revenue has furnished a study of its impact on the state’s economy and revenue cost to the commonwealth and its cities and towns, including, but not limited to, a distributional analysis showing the impact on taxpayers of varying income levels, the current practice of other states, any anticipated change in employment and ancillary economic activity to the joint committee on revenue and until legislation has been filed and passed pursuant to Part 2, Chap. 1, Sec. 1, Art. II of the Constitution.”.
